Apostrophes

Apostrophes (') are used when writing the shorter from of a word.

Example: The word 'is not' can be changed into 'isn't' by adding an apostrophe before the 't'.

Apostrophes should not be used for a plural unless it is a possessive apostrophe, e.g. Susan's hat.

Example: Incorrect – ball's

Correct – balls

Q. Write the full form of the words with the apostrophes in the spaces provided.

a. isn't _____

b. can't _____

c. didn't _____

d. haven't _____

e. shouldn't _____

f. aren't _____

g. weren't _____

h. hasn't _____