

Use of Correct Verb

Singular Pronouns: I, my, he, her, him, she,

Plural Pronouns: we, them, they, us, you, your,

Both the verb and the subject must be the same- either plural or singular.

We was late today – This sentence is incorrect because the verb ‘was’ is singular and the pronoun ‘we’ is plural. When putting together a pronoun and a verb they must both be the same either singular or plural.

Q. Underline the correct verb and rewrite the sentences in the spaces provided.

a. I (was, were) ill yesterday.

b. We (was, were) told to wait in the reception.

c. She (is, are) taking part in the competition.

d. They (was, were) returning from their holiday.

e. He (has, have) to complete his homework.

f. She (is, were) going to school.
