Use of Either and Neither

 a. (either, neither) Fred nor Tia turned up to work today. b. It is possible to take (either, neither) the train or the bus to Leeds. c. The competition was tough, the winner was (either, neither) Tom or Stacey. d. The eruption of the volcano was predicted for (either, neither) May or June. e. Toast can be eaten with (either, neither) butter or jam. f. Anna's uncle was (either, neither) a teacher or a manager, but a dentist. g. The street was (either, neither) on the left or the right. 	one or the other.
c. The competition was tough, the winner was (either, neither) Tom or Stacey. d. The eruption of the volcano was predicted for (either, neither) May or June. e. Toast can be eaten with (either, neither) butter or jam. f. Anna's uncle was (either, neither) a teacher or a manager, but a dentist.	a.	(either, neither) Fred nor Tia turned up to work today.
d. The eruption of the volcano was predicted for (either, neither) May or June. e. Toast can be eaten with (either, neither) butter or jam. f. Anna's uncle was (either, neither) a teacher or a manager, but a dentist.	b. 	It is possible to take (either, neither) the train or the bus to Leeds.
e. Toast can be eaten with (either, neither) butter or jam. f. Anna's uncle was (either, neither) a teacher or a manager, but a dentist.	c.	The competition was tough, the winner was (either, neither) Tom or Stacey.
f. Anna's uncle was (either, neither) a teacher or a manager, but a dentist.	d.	The eruption of the volcano was predicted for (either, neither) May or June.
	e.	Toast can be eaten with (either, neither) butter or jam.
g. The street was (either, neither) on the left or the right.	f.	Anna's uncle was (either, neither) a teacher or a manager, but a dentist.
	g. 	The street was (either, neither) on the left or the right.