

Use of Either or Neither

'Neither' is used to describe none of the two

'Either' is used to describe one or the other.

Q. Underline the correct word from the options and rewrite the sentence in the spaces provided.

a. Sarah did not like (either, neither) of the choices.

---

b. Tom could not decide between them, he did not like (either, neither).

---

c. Stacey had to choose between (either, neither) of the choices given to her.

---

d. Jerry could not decide what to watch, it was (either, neither) football or tennis.

---

e. The teacher called the mother and father but (either, neither) of them answered.

---

f. There were apples and grapes but Anne liked (either, neither) of them.

---

g. Steve looked for his book and pen, but he could find (either, neither)