

Possessive Apostrophes

Possessive apostrophes tell us what a thing (noun) belongs to.

Example: My friend's bag. Here the bag (noun), belongs to the friend (noun) therefore the apostrophe is placed to indicate possession.

Q. Rewrite the sentences below with the possessive apostrophes placed in the correct position within the sentence.

a. The girls shoes.

b. Her brothers ball.

c. Annas room is filled with books.

d. The strangers wallet fell out of his pocket.

e. The streets light is not working.

f. The doors handle broke.

g. The crowns jewels are very precious.

h. The temples architecture is extraordinary.

i. The pharaohs tomb is preserved in Egypt.
