

Adverbs

An adverb describes a verb; it describes how an action is done.

Example: We ate the ice cream quickly. The word quickly is the 'adverb' and the word ate is the verb.

Q. Underline the verbs and the adverbs in the following sentences and write them in the spaces provided.

- | | verb | adverb |
|--|-------|--------|
| a. The boys will play football afterwards. | _____ | _____ |
| b. Artists always paint with perfection. | _____ | _____ |
| c. They have almost finished the food. | _____ | _____ |
| d. The athlete won the race once. | _____ | _____ |
| e. Vegetarians never eat meat. | _____ | _____ |
| f. The people left before the war. | _____ | _____ |

Q. Fill in the blanks with the correct adverb taken from the options.

afterwards, often, always, slowly, before, again

- a. Schools _____ organise outings for students.
- b. The participant ran _____ because of his injured leg.
- c. She _____ eats breakfast in the morning.
- d. The performance will continue _____.
- e. The restaurant will open _____ after renovation.
- f. The dinner was ready _____ the guests arrived.