

Linguistic Devices

Q. The following words are linguistic devices used very often in Shakespeare's plays. Use the linguistic devices to construct sentences.

Example of personification in Shakespeare's play, 'Richard III':
'Made him my book, wherein my soul recorded' Shakespeare uses metaphors in his plays to express his character's feelings and thoughts, metaphors provide a better indication or depiction of what a writer indirectly means.

"The feeling of peace was something the people of our village wept for, however it was only a guest for a few days and left with the hope of all our villagers when the rise of dictatorship took control and seized all the existence of freedom there ever was."

a. metaphor _____
_____

b. simile _____
_____

c. personification _____
_____

d. alliteration _____
_____

e. onomatopoeia _____
_____