

Use of 'Too' and 'To'

Too is an adverb and signifies more than enough – There are too many people.

To is a preposition and can indicate the direction of something or express the purpose of an action – The distance from here to the main road.

Q. Rewrite the sentences with the correct word from the options.

a. The schools have sent the results (to/too) the students.

---

b. There are usually (to/too) many accidents on the busy roads.

---

c. She is going (to/too) the library.

---

d. The preparation for exams is (to/too) worrying.

---

e. The journey to the city from the suburbs is (to/too) long and tiring.

---

f. There is currently no transport (to/too) the city.

---

g. Prices are currently (to/too) high due to inflation.

---