

Use of Its and It's

The word 'it's' is the short word for 'it is' or 'it has'

The word 'its' is used to represent a belonging or a possession

Q. Underline the correct 'its'/'it's' and write the sentences in the spaces provided.

a. Dave thinks (it's, its) going to be windy tomorrow.

---

b. (it's, its) difficult to see the stars in a polluted city.

---

c. The tree and (it's, its) leaves begin to fall during autumn.

---

d. The restaurant's workers and (it's, its) customers are given a free drink.

---

e. A new building has been built and (it's, its) walls are decorated with mosaics.

---

f. The school has a new play area and (it's, its) located near the entrance.

---

g. The cat injured (it's, its) paw when it fell.

---

h. The door could not be opened because (it's, its) key was missing.

---