

Article Writing

Q. Write an article for a magazine directed at the youth, explaining the different opportunities higher education has to offer.

-Write about the different types of opportunities open to the youth after they have completed higher education.

-Explain the advantages of having such opportunities and how this benefits society.

[illegible]

[illegible]