'Hurricane Hits England'

Q. Read the following poem 'Hurricane Hits England', and answer the questions based on the poem.

It took a hurricane, to bring her closer

To the landscape

Half the night she lay awake,

The howling ship of the wind

Its gathering rage,

Like some dark ancestral spectre,

Fearful and reassuring:

Talk to me Huracan

Talk to me Oya

Talk to me Shango

And Hattie,

My sweeping, back-home cousin.

Tell me why you visit.

An English coast?

What is the meaning

Of old tongues

Reaping havoc

In new places?

The blinding illumination,

Even as you short-Circuit us

Into further darkness?

What is the meaning of trees

Falling heavy as whales

Their crusted roots

Their cratered graves?

O Why is my heart unchained?

Tropical Oya of the Weather,

I am aligning myself to you,

I am following the movement of your winds,

I am riding the mystery of your storm.

Ah, sweet mystery;

Come to break the frozen lake in me,

Shaking the foundations of the very trees within me,

Come to let me know,

That the earth is the earth is the earth.

Grace Nichols.
