

Exclamation Marks and Question Marks

Exclamation marks are used to show someone shouting or excited.
e.g.

I love that book!

Look at the sentences and put the exclamation marks in the right sentences.

1) I love playing outside

2) We went to the park together

3) I don't like blue birds, Tom shouted.

4) I want to go to the park now

5) Where are my crisps

6) I want that chocolate

7) Where should I put my shoes

8) Let me go home

9) I don't like that

Speech marks are used when someone speaks.
e.g. -

'How are you?' asked Sam.

Look at the sentences below and add the speech marks to the sentences that you think need them.

1) I want to go home, said Jane.

2) I like sweets, said Mark.

3) I love going to the gym on Sundays, shouted Jim.

4) I will definitely win this race, shouted Jack.

5) Where are you going, asked Jim.

6) What should I do, asked Jack.

7) Please can I go out now, asked Rose.

8) That book is really good to read, said Jack.

9) That school is very popular, said Jim.
