

Question Marks and Exclamation Marks

You use a question mark after a question.
e.g.

Where is the house? What colour is your cat?

Look at the sentences and only put a question mark on the sentences you think need one.

1) Where are my pencils

2) I like going outside with my friends

3) Why do you like the colour pink

4) People always ask lots of questions

5) What colour is the sky

6) Where can I find the sweet shop

7) I don't like going out at night

8) I love the colour pink
